Tomorrow's games — Monument Lot, 3:30 p. m. Central vs. Tech, and Western vs. Eastern. Umpires — Messrs. Handiboe and Woodward. Friday's games — Western vs. Tech, and Business vs. Central.

By BRYAN MORSE.

College baseball in this section of the country will come to a close during the next ten days. Virginia has completed her schedule, Washington and Lee and V. M. I. have a few more games, while the local colleges-George own, Catholic University, and the Maryland Aggies—have come to the end of their baseball rope.

A few remaining games will be played here during the next week, and a few days into the week following. Then the athletes are expected to get down to the big grind before the final week of examinations.

the big grind before the final week of examinations.
Catholic University has by far the best record of any of the local schools on the diamond this season. The Brocklanders have about held their own with college nines in the East, and have come to be looked upon as formidable opponents for any of the visiting teams.
Georgetown started failrly well, but went poorly during the season. The Hilltoppers have a few more battless before the season is officially closed. The Maryland Aggies have several games this week, and close next week with two State title games.

Maryland Aggies nave this week, and close next week with two State title games.

M. A. C. meets Georgetown, Gallaudet, and the Catholic University teams during the week in what is expected to be a rather tough program. In addition, there are four championship high school games and two prep school title games to be on the week's card.

Games this week among the schools and colleges are as follows: Monday—Gonzaga vs. Eastern High Tuesday—St. Albans vs. A. N. Prep. Tech vs. Central; Western vs. Eastern rech vs. Central; Western vs. Eastern Catholic University vs. Maryland As Wednesday-Tech. vs. A. N. Preps. Gellaudet vs. Maryland Aggles.

Thursday—Gonzaga vs. Leonard Hall: Albans vs. Western High School. Friday—Central vs. Business; Western vs. Tech; Georgetown Preps. vs. A. N. Preps.

Preps.
Saturday—Maryland Aggies vs. Gonzaga; Gallaudet vs. Mt. St. Joseph; Geofgetown University vs. Maryland
Asgles; Catholic University vs. Navy.

One of the greatest of battles is expected tomorrow when Tech and Central meet for the first time this season. Both teams were forced to play on Saturday and both held out their best pitchers for use tomorrow. Central tried to get away with the Western game, using Shaffer, while Tech made good use of Dave Pfeiffer in defeating Business. It is a foregone conclusion that Gottheb will oppose Hird in tomorrow's battle. Western will probably send Peck back against Eastern tomorrow. Peck got better as the game went on Saturday, and seemed to be able to stand the work.

on Saturday afternoon the annual high school field and track games will be held at College Park. There are more entries this season than ever before, and the meet promises to be a success, as far as entries are concerned at least. The distance from town is not conducive to a large attendance, and the Maryland Aggies have been kind enough to furnish the field and officials, which is a sure sign of having the meet competently managed. Next year the games will probably be held in Central's new stadium.

It will be difficult to chose a winner in the baseball games played to date. Central appears to have a well-balanced team. Western looked weak in hitting agninst Shaffer, while Tech looked none too strong against Wassermann, of Business. Eastern may loom up as the strong candidate this season, for in Flaherty the Easterners have the most competent catcher who possesses a real throwing arm. Tomlin, in the box is the most dependable twirler in the Eastern staff, and can be looked upon as a winner.

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock mar-kets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-sages), well secured on real cetate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gilt-edge" investments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cor-porations for their stability, and are exempt from taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from 8500 upward. Send for booklet, "Concerning Loans and Investments."
